

BRAND STANDARDS
JANUARY 2015

A brand forged by riders since 1901.

As long as there have been American motorcycles, there have been Indian Motorcycle® riders. Riders who made the Indian Motorcycle® brand what it is. Riders who know you can't buy character. You build it. One ride at a time. Every time you throw a leg over an Indian motorcycle, you're helping to build the Indian Motorcycle® brand. You join legendary riders like the Jackpine Gypsies, Erwin "Cannonball" Baker and Ed "Iron man" Kretz. Riders who made Indian Motorcycle® the legendary brand it is today. A brand that never settles for less than the best. A brand that honors its past, but is firmly focused on that long, winding ribbon of asphalt that lies ahead.

Riders are the Heart and Soul of Indian Motorcycle®.

Indian Motorcycle®, the Indian Motorcycle Riders Group®, local chapters and sponsoring dealers have all worked hard to build and maintain a positive image of Indian Motorcycle® riders. That's why we want to make sure the Indian Motorcycle Riders Group® logo, Indian Motorcycle® brand, logos and trademarks are treated with the respect they deserve.

No Native American references, imagery or iconography can be used on any product or in any communications. This includes words, images of people and the use of symbols, e.g., arrows or headdresses.

The use of trademarks across categories and territories is subject to full approval by Indian Motorcycle®.
